

Miss Universe Joins Shoma Group in Celebrating Success of Oasis Park Square.

In anticipation of the 63rd Miss Universe pageant that took place in Doral last night, 2013 Miss Universe Gabriela Isler joined Shoma Group for a reception celebrating the extraordinary success of Oasis Park Square.

The residential community, located in the epicenter of Doral's bustling urban core, features customizable homes with luxury features including wine cellars, rooftop retreats with outdoor kitchens and Jacuzzi's and open-living floor plans. Hosted at the project's sales gallery at 3470 NW 82 Avenue Suite 108, Doral, the intimate gathering recognized Shoma Group President, Masoud Shojaee, for his on-going support for the Doral community and the instrumental role the firm has played in distinguishing the city as one of Miami's premier addresses through its exceptional vision and development.

The reception was attended by Shoma Group VIPs, including future residents and the project's network of brokers, in addition to the Mayor of Doral Luigi Boria, Councilman Pete Cabrera and Councilwoman Ana Maria Rodriguez.

Mayor of Doral Luigi Boria, Councilwoman Ana Maria Rodriguez, Miss Universe Gabriela Isler, Shoma Group President Masoud Shojaee, and Councilman Pete Cabrera